THE FISHING SEASON IS NEAR AN END

What to do Today

When your health is not normal, there is a remedy. It is a simple, natural remedy, which will bring you back to normal in any part of the body.

Professional Examination and Diagnosis is given by the medical department of the University of Toronto, which is the only institution in the world that has a complete department of medicine and surgery, which will give you a complete examination and diagnosis of your health.

BUT NOT FOR ALL FISH. MAY CATCH BASS AND LUNGE FOR MONTH YET.

Under regulations of the Ontario Game and Fisheries Department, fishermen seeking some of the choicest varieties of fish have only a few days to go for the season close on the fish.

Season for black bass and muskellunge has more than a month yet to go, to Oct. 15, except in Lake Simcoe, where the season is open until May 1st next. There is also a longer season for lake trout, and in Lake Huron, the Bay of Quinte, Georgian Bay and the Great Lakes, as well as the St. Lawrence river there is no closed date for trout, while in Lake Ontario the season for lake trout is open until Nov. 15.

KIRKFIELD MASONS GO TO CHURCH

KIRKFIELD, Sept. 7.—(Staff Correspondence)—On Sunday last, September 7th, the Masonic Brethren attended Divine Worship in the Presbyterian Church, Kirkfield, at 1.30 p.m.

The church was prettily decorated. The service was conducted by Mr. G. A. Baugh, who took for his text, these words "Blessing the Work Our Fathers Did."

A special music was rendered by the choir assisted by Mrs. Helen Warrington and Mr. Geo. D. Thomas.

Mrs. Warrington, well known as a singer, sang two pleasing numbers, with Mrs. Shields of Victoria Road accompanying. Mr. Croft also assisted in singing the hymns.

Amateur services were held at Union Station on Sunday, September 7th.

The Kirkfield quartette were present at the morning services and sang "Way Set Now" and "Where He Leads Me I Shall Follow." The quartette consisted of Mrs. Hayes, Mrs. Fard, Mrs. R. G. Mackay and H. P. Hayes. Mr. Moore presided at the schoolmaster.

Girl Club Dance

The Girl Club held a dance in the Town Hall last Sunday night. Music was furnished by the Gullie Orchestra, assisted by Mrs. Stella Graham of Lindsay.

Church responded on Tuesday, September 10th, with Miss Myrtle Stiles and Miss Anna Park of Raiton teachers in the public school here.

Quite a number of little ones were seen hurrying to school this morning for the first time.

The Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York City has one of the best collections of jade in the world.

Special Service Held At Bethany

BETHANY, Sept. 7.—(Staff Correspondence)—St. Paul's Anglican Church presented a glowing appearance on Sunday when the annual Harvest Thanksgiving service was held morning and evening. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers, fruits and vegetables. The altar was dressed in white and the service was of two hours with a full and complete service.

The special preacher for the service was the Rev. Burgess Brown of Toronto. The pastor, Rev. Mr. Johnson, assisted with the reading of the prayers and prayers. Holy communion was celebrated at the morning service and the choir and a very appropriate anthem for the evening service.

The service was held at St. Paul's having previously in the church when the 8th anniversary was observed some years ago.

School opened on Tuesday with Miss Pomeroy of St. Thomas, as principal of the High School, and Mrs. Ida Caradon, principal of the Public School, are among the first to enter the school.

Some of last year's pupils are continuing their education in Lindsay and others have gone to Toronto.

Cut Price For Booths, Pick Up For The Fair

Reduce Rates 10 p.c. For Space In Main Buildings And On Grounds.

27 CONTABLES

The trustees of the Fair Board held their last meeting in the hall on Thursday night and completed all arrangements in regard to the annual exhibition to be held here from September 29-30 inclusive.

The main business of the evening was in regard to the price paid for main buildings for space in the main building and outside also. At the suggestion of several members it was decided to reduce the rates ten per cent. from what it has been in former years. As this raises it is expected that many more local business people will take the opportunity to exhibit at the booth in the main building.

Another motion that met with the unanimous approval of every director was that the money for free tickets should be paid by Wednesday evening and no excuses would be expected. It was also decided to give out a year's board with difficulty with people who remain both exhibitors and directors. It was also decided to pay for the booth in the main building and outside also. It was also decided to pay for the booth in the main building and outside also.

It is desired to have a large number of exhibitors at the fair. The fair is held on Thursday and Friday. The fair is held on Thursday and Friday. The fair is held on Thursday and Friday.

Peter, frantically scribbling notes from his prone position on the floor above, had never seen Mrs. Jordan— but he had a strong conviction that

Jordan said, "I don't see what that did that you."

"I didn't go there to kill him!"

He exclaimed, "I knew he had a box of money on his desk. That was the only way to get out of the ap-

CHAPTER IX.

"What's fine?" Peter said heartily. "Tell me, just between ourselves—do you have any definite reason to believe that he did do it? Those things have to be proved, you ately lying about him, which seems a bit far-fetched." Any of the three could have strangled Effries, and could have got into the house without arousing Sing, supposing that either one of

MR. CATHER KNOX of towns and watered homesteads of the wheat-growing country.

WERNER PAIR, Sept. 21—The Correspondence—Word of the passing of Catherine Bowman, the wife of the late Benjamin Bowman, of the Big Lake area, was received here last night, and was caused by relatives and friends at London, Pa., and Verulam.

Death caused by heart trouble occurred at the family residence, 1001 1/2 Broadway, New York City, on Saturday, Sept. 14, after a brief illness, the funeral being held on Monday, Sept. 18 at 2 p.m. with services conducted by the Rev. Dr. J. H. H. Smith, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, New York City.

Mr. Bowman, a former resident of North Adams Church, Penn., was prominent took place in

Some of these friends who "flocked" to the funeral were: Mr. Carmen Knox, Mrs. Anna Knox, Mr. John Knox, Mrs. Julia McKim, Mr. John McKim, Mrs. Mary McKim and Mr. Victor Knox. Many friends and acquaintances here of Mrs. Knox learned with surprise of her passing. In the summer of 1900 a noted friend at Pleasant Bay where the family

Woodville Band Parades
It was quite pleasing to see and hear the Woodville Citizens' Band at the celebration Friday. They paraded to the ballpark, and played several selections during the afternoon. A band seems to be very essential at such an affair, and it is fine to be able to call on the "home town" for this assistance. Long may they play!

Dark Season Opens
Whether a child, awakening on
